FESTIVUS OF BANDS

It's that time of year again! Some of the best bands the city has to offer will convene for three days packed full of local music at Sky City's Festivus of Bands. Twenty-six great acts, ranging from prog rock to garage punk to experimental to folk and everything else in between, will demonstrate the diversity of our fair city. New bands, old bands and even a few reunions mark this yearly event as the perfect showcase of our wonderful scene.

Each night is free to enter, and the Vinyl Swap/Shop will be held on Saturday from 2 - 6 p.m., during which patrons can buy, sell or trade records. Perhaps say it best as he describes he Festivus of Bands as "a celebration of our local music scene, featuring bands young and old during the holiday season as my gift to the bands and their supporters."

Where do most of your comic ideas come from?
 I write down my dreams, read literature, and listen to inspiring, hilarious people.

What about this scene has been inspiring to you?
 Peter Stitt's recent photography exhibits at 1155 have invoked a spontaneous overflow of powerful emotion in me.
 Death Star's reunion show at Soul Bar was one of the best concerts I've ever been to. They channel Can like no other.
 Greg Elias' release of the "Secret Guest" record on Academia Tapes (Charleston, SC), along with all of Greg Islands' records on the same label, have all blown me away.

Where can the public see your work?
 For all of December, I have two pieces at Sky City, and I have four pieces at Artists' Local. From December 31 to January 31, there will be an entire exhibit of my work at Artists' Local comes in, for only 99 cents! I've also set up subscriptions, and it's all accessible through the No Funnies fanpage on Facebook.

Two, GLOOM COCOON! A three piece psychedelic punk rock band comprised of mystery jerks.

Full disclosure, Jason has been involved with this zine from the beginning, but Augusta is seeing more of his work lately than ever, and we wanted you to know what kind of artists we're dealing with here. If you've been to the Book Tavern or New Moon, you might have seen his work either hung, sat, or about where you are. Now he's moving up in our local art world and we couldn't be happier to see him gaining the recognition he deserves.

Who's in your fav artist rolodex?
 Jack Kirby, Matt Groening, Charles Burns, Art Spiegelman, Jim Woodring, Gary Panter.

What projects are you working on currently?
 One, I just started selling and releasing issues of No Funnies, in the same zine form that Creases of Artists' Local, there will be an entire exhibit of my work at Artists' Local comes in, for only 99 cents! I've also set up subscriptions, and it's all accessible through the No Funnies fanpage on Facebook.

... THAT'S IT?!
 NO! Go online now to read the full interview, see full color images of Jason's work, and more! creasesaugusta.weebly.com
